Baldwin was born in Macoupin county, Illinois, in 1872. He lived on a farm until twelve years of age, when upon the removal of his parents to the city, he was sent to the public schools. The excellent education received there was supplemented by a thorough course of study at a first-class business college. Mr. Baldwin s musical education was secured at two conservatories from which institutions he graduated. He was also a pupil of two great masters. His love for music began at an extremely early age and as he grew older the interest was deepened. He determined to learn all that was possible of the art with which he was so enraptured and worked hard and faithfully to attain that end. Mr. Baidwin has been unusually successful as a composer and the merit of his compositions is widely known. One of his most popular instrumental pieces is the Brownies Gavotte, which has been played all over the United States. Another successful composition is the Bridegroom Two-step. Late pieces from his pen are: General Lee s Twostep, Daisy s First Waltz and Echo Waltzes. He has also written many teaching pieces which have been recognized by eminent teachers as valuable additions to this class of music. Mr. Baldwin writes band music as well as piano music and with equal facility. He is well known as a brilliant pianist. Although a writer of considerable popular music his taste...
