Wesleyan. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 80 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.8in. x 0.2in. This is the first book published in English by of the work of Brazilian poet Adlia Prado. Incorporating poems published over the past fifteen years, The Alphabet in the Park is a book of passion and intelligence, wit and instinct. These are poems about human concerns, especially those of women, about living in ones body and out of it, about the physical but also the spiritual and the imaginative life. Prado also writes about ordinary matters; she insists that the human experience is both mystical and carnal. To Prado these are not contradictory: Its the soul thats erotic, she writes. As Ellen Watson says in her introduction, Adlia Prados poetry is a poetry of abundance. These poems overflow with the humble, grand, various stuff of daily life necklaces, bicycles, fish; saints and prostitutes and presidents; innumerable chickens and musical instruments And, seemingly at every turn, there is food. But also, an abundance of dark things, cancer, death, greed. These are poems of appetite, all kinds. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
