How Big Is Your Umbrella: Weathering the Storms of Life, Second Edition (Paperback)

By Sheila Wray Gregoire

Word Alive Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 210 x 136 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life has its inevitable storms. While we all secretly hope for the fairy-tale happily ever after, we instinctively dread the storm that can destroy all our dreams.or at the very least, leave us with overwhelming grief and despair. Preparing for and shielding ourselves from storms is half the battle. Facing them unprepared can have disastrous results. Packed with Scripture, real-life examples, and stories of the author s own journey through life s downpours, How Big is Your Umbrella? Helps equip us to weather all sorts of storms successfully. About the Author: Sheila Wray Gregoire is a speaker, blogger, and syndicated columnist whose passion is pointing people to the One who can restore broken hearts and broken relationships. The author of seven books, she tries to combine the realities of family and modern life with Scripture for real-world, real-biblical answers. Together with her husband Keith, she also speaks at marriage conferences and retreats. She lives in her Belleville, Ontario home with her husband, two teenage daughters, and a whole pile of unfinished knitting. You can find her...
