Cedrick Brown not only deals with the pressing divide in our churches, but advances solutions which are biblical, practical, and workable. How can we be a part of the reconciliation ministry of the gospel and do anything less than actively embrace the principles and processes of reconciliation in this vital book? Phil Downer, Discipleship Network of America, National Conference Speaker, Author, Effective Men s Ministry, A Father s Reward, Unlimited Partnership We won t be a city on a hill until we truly become a Diverse City. We were made to celebrate our differences and Cedrick Brown not only wrote a book about it,he lives it. Toby Mac (Mac Keehan), Musician, Producer, and Songwriter, Former member of dc Talk, Dove Award Winner and Grammy Nominated Artist Cedrick s thorough biblical and practical approach to the racial and cultural divide in the church is just what the American church needs. Our divided fellowship is not only sinful, it robs us all of the exhilarating joy God designed for us to experience in His family together. Marty Berglund, Author, Seeking the Unseen God: Faith Lessons from the Life of Moses, Pastor of Fellowship Alliance Chapel in Medford, New Jersey.
