John Glenn, Chairman of the Committee, presiding. Present: Senators Glenn, Lieberman, Dorgan, Roth, and Cohen. Opening Statement of Chairman Glenn Chairman Glenn. The hearing will be in order. I understand our witness this morning made the same mistake that I have made in the past few days, and that is going to the wrong hearing room. Our other hearing room, the one we are usually in, is being refurbished, and so I have made that same mistake. I want to continue this morning our discussions on improving the management and performance of the Federal Government. Now, too often these are very dry, dull words, but what it means is: Where does the buck stop? Does it stop here? Who is minding the store? Who is in charge? Last week the Committee heard from Comptroller General Charles Bowsher, who raised concerns that in many Federal agencies there is still inadequate leadership and training and systems and capacity. This morning we are pleased to have with us Leon Panetta, Director of the Office of Management and Budget, whose charter is, aside from budget matters - which obviously are a very major part of his activity - to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the Government, to put the M back into OMB. Now, I know we want to give the new administration time to accomplish some of these things and time to get everything working,...
