Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There is nothing common about the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and there is nothing common about Seven Sins, Seven Stories by Ronald C. Flores. Sin is universal, but the characters in these seven tales celebrate it in odd and original ways. There is the angst and anger of a barely sane boy in a bar in San Juan, a vengeful country widow who buries her miserly man in a sea of expensive red silk, a lust-crazed lad who wants to be cured by castration, a village idiot spooked out of love, a lost infant who may find her way home too late, an operatic ode to gluttony, and a sassy girl-child who sashays her way to womanhood. Critics have said, Rarely has local color been splashed on a canvas of words as brightly as in this collection. If you like your fiction short and exotic, and your sins served up in a singular fashion, you ll love these tropical tales.
