Let me teach you your business. Here! Settles silk hat firmly on his head, gives calltell a whack and shouts loudly. Front! jackson starts and drops a plate. Theres another fourteen cents gone to thunder. How do you ever expect to get rich quick at this game if you throw money away like that Lady in Number 18 wants cup of tea and biscuits. Lively, now! jackson sits on floor, rubbing his legs and bellowing. Jackson. I aint a-goin to climb to the top floor for nobody. I jest cant! Curtis. Now, pay attention, O. B. You decline to assist me, an as Sheriff Ill put you in the calaboose, an as Chief of the Fire Department Ill play the hose on you when I git you thar--an Ill have the President of the Dorcas Society come an sing hymns to you. Now, trot! Jackson. Rimg. Say, do you know who that is in Number 18 Thats the ex-potato peeler lady stayin on to even up for her wages. Curtis. I dont care if its Mary Queens of Scots. She wants her tea, an shes a-goin to have it. Whos runnin this place, anyway Youve elected me skipper, an youve got to skip as I call the figures. Ill have no mutiny aboard this craft. Roars. Git! jackson hastily goes out at inner door, Curtis looking after him with satisfaction. Thats one of the few pleasures of this mess--to see that old miser...
