Digest it is provided that, before entering upon his duties, the master shall be sworn in open court to faithfully and impartially perform said duties, and it is provided further that an entry of such oath should be made upon the record. It appears that, through inadvertence, the master did not take the oath thus required before beginning his duties; but the defendant and his counsel appeared before the master and during the extended time in which the testimony was taken by him no objection was made to his proceeding on this account. It is provided by the statute that the oath should be taken in open court, and it will be presumed that all parties were present in court when any step was taken in the progress of this case. The defendant is, therefore, presumed to have known whether or not the master...
