Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Candid Statement Respecting the Philadelphia County Ticket The act of the 15th of February, 1799, forms the basis of the general election laws of the commonwealth. It has however, been amended in several important particulars It is our object, first to show exactly what the law is, so far as it is applicable to the late elections in the county of Philadelphia - and then to apply it to the facts of the case which are indisputable. By the second section of the act of 1799, as amended by the act of 17th of March, 1806, each and every town, township, ward or district, shall choose one inspector, on the Friday next preceding the first Tuesday in October, in each and every year; and, by the 4th section, the inspectors for each election district shall, on the morning of the day of election, take to their assistance not less than three, nor more than five, respectable citizens qualified to vote, who shall be judges of the election in such districts. - This is the general rule. The city and incorporated districts of the county of Philadelphia are, by various subsequent acts, governed as follows: - The city is divided into fifteen wards; each ward elects two inspectors; and the inspectors of each ward choose a judge, making fifteen judges. The incorporated district of the Northern Liberties is divided into seven wards, each ward has two inspectors, and a majority of the fourteen inspectors appoints seven judges. The district of Spring Garden is divided into four wards; each ward elects two inspectors, and a majority of inspectors appoints the judges. The district of Kensington is...
